

GREEN MUSIC CENTER AT SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

ANGIE ZHANG, PIANO

Described as a “valuable advocate for classical music from her generation” by NY Concert Review, pianist Angie Zhang, 20, is a proud recipient of the Kovner Fellowship at Juilliard and a senior studying with Dr. Yoheved Kaplinsky. An active member of her school community, she has been Chair of Juilliard Student Council, a writer and photographer for the Juilliard Journal, a Student Ambassador, Admissions Tour Guide and Panelist, and a student in the Barnard-Columbia-Juilliard Exchange Program. Angie was also chosen to be Murray Perahia’s Commencement Escort in 2015.

Charming audiences with her sensitive and thoughtful playing, she has performed extensively as a soloist with orchestras since she made her debut playing under Grammy-nominated conductor Niel DePonte at the age of ten. Angie recently made her debut with the Juilliard Orchestra under Maestro Fabio Luisi, Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra.

1801 EAST COTATI AVENUE, ROHNERT PARK, CA 94928