DOORI NA, VIOLIN

Doori Na began violin studies at the age of four and made his solo debut with orchestra at the age of seven with the Peninsula Youth Symphony. A winner of numerous competitions in San Francisco and Los Angeles, he has performed with the Palisades Symphony, Brentwood Symphony, Fremont Symphony and the Torrance Symphony. Doori has given solo recitals in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Shelter Island and New York City. Also an avid chamber musician, he has collaborated with artists including Itzhak Perlman, Roger Tapping, Cynthia Phelps and Nancy Allen.

Currently living in New York City, Doori has performed with many different ensembles around the city ranging from Classical and New Music to Jazz. He has been regularly performing with the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra and recent highlights include tours to Europe, Japan and the US. Doori is also a violin soloist for the New Chamber Ballet.
