(Sonoma County, CA) — Sonoma State University’s Green Music Center finishes its 2016 Summer Season with an eclectic mix of performances throughout the month of September at Weill Hall + Lawn. Concerts range from iconic rock and comedy acts to a pairing of the folk stylings of The Avett Brothers with GMC’s inaugural Craft Beer Fest (Sept. 15).

The Summer 2016 MasterCard Performance Series starts off September with rock icon, cancer survivor, and activist Melissa Etheridge in concert Saturday, September 3, at 7:30 p.m. Singer-songwriter Gavin DeGraw fans can expect to hear songs from his 10-plus year career including classics “I Don’t Wanna Be” and “Not Over You,” Sunday, September 11, at 7:00 p.m. Both artists have albums due out later this year.

Legendary guitarist Pat Metheny takes the stage Tuesday, September 13, 2016, at 7:30 p.m., with special guests Antonio Sanchez, Linda Oh, and Gwilym Simcock. On Thursday, September 15, at 5:30 p.m., the Green Music Center launches its inaugural Craft Beer Fest, featuring an amazing lineup of brews combined with folk rock favorites The Avett Brothers. Guests will be able to sample beers and ciders from local breweries including 101 North, Anderson Valley, Berryessa Brewing, Henhouse, Lagunitas, Napa Palisades, Petaluma Hills, Sonoma Cider, and Unita. All proceeds go to support the Green Music Center’s free Jazz for Young People Concert, Saturday, October 1, at 1:00 p.m., featuring Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis, as part of the center’s ongoing community engagement and outreach efforts.

The month continues as the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band celebrates 50 years of music making Friday, September 16, at 7:30 p.m. Comedy power couple Nick Offerman and Megan Mullally shed humorous insight into their marriage with their “Summer of 69: No Apostrophe” tour, Sunday, September 18, at 7:00 p.m.
Summer 2016 concludes with a diverse weekend of entertainment including country star Chris Young, Saturday, September 24, at 7:30 p.m.; Shanghai Acrobats of the People's Republic of China, Sunday, September 25, at 2:00 p.m.; and celebrate Shakespeare's 400th with noted actor Derek Jacobi, actor/director Richard Clifford, NapaShakes, and the acclaimed early musicians of Folger Consort, in a special mash-up of Shakespeare's Measure for Measure with excerpts from Henry Purcell's chamber opera Dido and Aeneas, Sunday, September 25, at 7:00 p.m.

During the months of July, August, and September, the rear wall of Weill Hall is fully opened to reveal the beautifully landscaped and terraced Weill Lawn. A large video screen projects the performance on stage in real time so that every patron on Weill Lawn has a close-up view of the stage. Seating is available both inside the concert hall and outdoors in table and lawn seating taking full advantage of unparalleled views of the Sonoma mountains. Lawn patrons are encouraged to bring blankets and low-back folding chairs, and to pack a picnic or enjoy on-site concessions during the concert. Outside liquids are not permitted on-site. Free water bottle filling stations are available. Lawn tickets for children ages 2-12 are half price for the duration of the summer and children under 2 are free.

Tickets are available. Call 1.866.955.6040 or visit gmc.sonoma.edu.
