The Four Seasons of Sonoma County – Our Free Community Concert

(Sonoma County, CA) — Summer at the Green 2019 is almost underway at Sonoma State University's Green Music Center. Programming begins in earnest at Weill Hall + Lawn this July, when the 4th of July Fireworks Spectacular returns for another unforgettable showcase of Broadway tunes and patriotic classics performed by the Santa Rosa Symphony and Transcendence Theatre Company, followed by the biggest fireworks display in Sonoma County! Other upcoming highlights include Trombone Shorty & Orleans Avenue, with opener Jon Cleary and the Absolute Monster Gentlemen (July 11); leading Norteño and 'banda' music interpreter Roberto Tapia (July 13); and a live recording of the popular variety show Live From Here with Chris Thile, featuring an array of guests including The Tallest Man on Earth, Guatemalan singer-songwriter Gaby Moreno, comedian Tom Papa and more (July 20)!

Bluegrass Day returns in July with another star-studded lineup featuring The Dawg Trio with David Grisman, Sam Grisman, & Danny Barnes; Steep Canyon Rangers; and acclaimed singer-songwriter Alela Diane. Coinciding with Bluegrass Day is the 4th Annual Craft Beer Fest! Featuring unlimited tastings of stellar brews, this year's Craft Beer Fest showcases 20+ breweries and cider makers, including Lagunitas, Russian River Brewing, Plow Brewing, Cooperage, and Moonlight. Plus, free food from Sally Tomatoes, Mountain Mike's, Yanni's Sausages, and Bohemian Creamery! Admission is $30 in addition to your Bluegrass ticket (July 21).

Rounding out the month of July is The Four Seasons of Sonoma County– Our Free Concert for the Community. Presented by the Green Music Center and Santa Rosa Symphony this free event celebrates the exquisite beauty of Sonoma County through the eyes of its residents, displayed on screens with Vivaldi's iconic ode to nature, The Four Seasons, as performed by the Santa Rosa Symphony (July 28). This co-produced program is free to the public, but a ticket is required. Tickets available Tuesday, July 9 at 10 a.m.

Tickets to most Summer at the Green 2019 are on sale now starting at $25. Call 1.707.664.4246 or visit gmc.sonoma.edu.

Families – Make sure to arrive early and check out our Kids Zone beginning at 4:30 p.m., complete with carnival games, bounce houses, and face painting plus food, music, and more!

TROMBONE SHORTY & ORLEANS AVENUE

WITH SPECIAL GUEST JON CLEARY & THE ABSOLUTE MONSTER GENTLEMEN

Thursday, July 11 at 7:30 P.M.

Rare indeed is the artist with the virtuosity to draw the unqualified respect of some of the most iconic legends in jazz while also capable of mesmerizing international rock stars. From brass band blare and deep-groove funk, to bluesy beauty and hip-hop/pop swagger Troy “Trombone Shorty” Andrews delivers plenty of emotion all anchored, of course, by stellar playing and the idea that, even in the toughest of times, as Andrews says, “Music brings unity.”

Providing support is the legendary Jon Cleary, a skillful tunesmith equally renowned around the globe as an accomplished keyboardist and guitarist, and a deeply soulful vocalist. Cleary’s thirty-five years of intensive hands-on work on the Crescent City scene has made him a respected peer of such New Orleans R&B icons as Dr. John and Allen Toussaint.

ROBERTO TAPIA EN CONCIERTO

Saturday, July 13 at 7:30 P.M.

Roberto Tapia is one of the leading Norteño and ‘banda’ music interpreters, with a very special style, making him one of the most sought out artists of his generation. His highly acclaimed album El Muchacho hit #1 on Billboard’s Latin Albums chart. Following the release of his hit album, Tapia became a coach on La Voz Kids – the Spanish version of The Voice Kids on Telemundo.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR DRAGON: THE HIDDEN WORLD

Sunday, July 14 at 5 P.M.

Pack a picnic and join us on Weill Lawn for How to Train Your Dragon: The Hidden World. Set a year after the events of the previous film, the third movie of the trilogy takes watchers on an adventure to find the secret Dragon Utopia.

Parking is $5. There will be attendants taking cash and credit cards in the lots starting at 3 p.m. To purchase a parking pass in advance, visit: <https://pmb.csustan.edu/dailypermits/#/>

LIVE FROM HERE WITH CHRIS THILE

Saturday, July 20 at 7:30 P.M.

Live from Here with Chris Thile is a Saturday-night destination for audiences everywhere. This variety show features a unique blend of musical performances, comedy, and audience interaction. Acclaimed musician and songwriter Chris Thile welcomes a wide range of well-known and up-and-coming talent to share the stage and create a beautiful listening experience. You'll hear (and see!) music from Chris, the show band, and The Tallest Man on Earth; Gaby Moreno; plus Invisibilia's Lulu Miller; comedian correspondent Tom Papa; and much more.

Live from Here is produced and distributed nationwide by American Public Media, and is heard locally on KQED in addition to nearly 600 other public radio stations.

BLUEGRASS DAY
THE DAWG TRIO WITH DAVID GRISMAN, SAM GRISMAN, & DANNY BARNES
STEEP CANYON RANGERS
ALENA DIANE

Sunday, July 21 at 2 P.M.
Craft Beer Fest at 12 P.M. – 3:30 P.M.

Fast becoming a Sonoma County Summer tradition, the Green Music Center's Bluegrass Festival features some of the genre's most exciting artists. This year we welcome back acoustic pioneer and innovator David Grisman along with fellow members of The Dawg Trio, Sam Grisman, and Danny Barnes. Their signature mix of bluegrass, gypsy jazz, Latin rhythms, and klezmer music originated into a holistic approach they call "dawg music." Also joining the lineup is the GRAMMY® Award-winning Steep Canyon Rangers and the critically acclaimed singer-songwriter Alela Diane!

Having spent nearly two decades bending and shaping the bluegrass aesthetic, wedding it to elements of pop, country, and folk rock, the Steep Canyon Rangers remarkably unique catalog of original music links them to the past while also demonstrating their ambitious intent to bring string-based music into contemporary relevance.

Alela Diane is celebrated for her ability to capture the nuances of an experience. Her most recent album Cusp embraces the complexity of today and explores hope for what's to come. "There is not a big place in the music industry for 30-something women with kids making music." She laughs as she pauses, then adds, "Maybe we can create that space."

Pair the Bluegrass Festival with our 4th Annual Craft Beer Fest! Featuring unlimited tastings of stellar brews, this year's Craft Beer Fest showcases 20+ breweries and cider makers, including presenting partner Lagunitas, Russian River Brewing, Plow Brewing, Cooperage, Barrel Brothers and Moonlight. Plus, free food from Sally Tomatoes, Mountain Mike's, Yanni's Sausages, and Bohemian Creamery! The Craft Beer Fest will kick off at 12 P.M. and go until 3:30 P.M. Only $30 in addition to your Bluegrass ticket.

Live music will be provided at the Craft Beer Fest by Fog Holler!

DIRECTIONS

Located in the heart of Sonoma County's Wine Country, the Green Music Center (GMC) is the performing arts presenting and producing organization based at Sonoma State University in Rohnert Park. The GMC entrance is at the intersection of Rohnert Park Expressway and Petaluma Hill Road.

From Highway 101, take the Rohnert Park Expressway exit. Drive east 2.2 miles to the Sonoma State University entrance on your right.

PARKING

As you enter campus from Rohnert Park Expressway, there are multiple parking lots immediately to your right. Parking is free with your ticket to all concerts at the GMC. Lots L, M, N, and O are directly across from the GMC entrance. Arrive early for the best parking. Overflow parking is available on the SSU campus for patrons who arrive late.

ABOUT THE GREEN MUSIC CENTER

The Green Music Center is the performing arts presenter at Sonoma State University. The mission of the Green Music Center is to present the most compelling artists of our time, to investigate ideas, and to provide access to diverse artistic experiences that educate, connect, and inspire Sonoma State University and neighboring North Bay communities. Surrounded by the foothills of Sonoma County, the Green Music Center includes the 1,400-seat Weill Hall, with a rear wall that opens to lawn seating for a unique summertime experience, and the intimate 240-seat Schroeder Hall. As a focal point for the arts and education in the region, the Green Music Center presents artists year-round, serving as home to the Santa Rosa Symphony, Sonoma Bach, and the Sonoma State University Music Department.

ABOUT SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Sonoma State University is a public liberal arts college located in California's premier wine country, one hour north of San Francisco. Nestled at the base of the idyllic Sonoma Mountains, the campus is home to more than 9,000 undergraduate students and is among the most popular schools in the California State University system. Named a "Most Wired" campus by The Princeton Review and a "Best Regional University" by U.S. News & World Report, SSU was first in the country to offer an undergraduate degree in Wine Business.
